

CITATION GUIDANCE

PURPOSE OF CITATION

Materials produced by the Occupational Wellness Institute™ may be cited for conceptual, analytical, and scholarly reference.

Citation supports academic discussion, institutional analysis, and interpretive engagement with the field.

Citation does not confer authority to apply, teach, or adapt the work into derivative frameworks.

NATURE OF THE WORK

The work of the Occupational Wellness Institute™ is definitional and analytical.

It establishes conceptual boundaries, structural conditions, and field-level distinctions.

It does not provide operational methods, intervention models, training systems, or certification pathways.

STANDARD CITATION FORMATS

Published Works

Chicago (Short Form)

Georgia Lee Arts, Occupational Psychosis: The Hidden Crisis Beneath Occupational Wellness, Vol. I (Occupational Wellness Institute, 2026).

APA (Short Form)

Arts, G. L. (2026). Occupational psychosis: The hidden crisis beneath occupational wellness (Vol. I). Occupational Wellness Institute.

Additional Canon Work

The following work extends the structural analysis introduced in Volume I. Citation is appropriate when referencing institutional patterns, structural dynamics, and system-level conditions.

CHICAGO (SHORT FORM)

Georgia Lee Arts, Occupational Psychosis: Institutional Failure Modes, Vol. II (Occupational Wellness Institute, 2026).

APA (SHORT FORM)

Arts, G. L. (2026). Occupational psychosis: Institutional failure modes (Vol. II). Occupational Wellness Institute.

Field Definition

Chicago (Short Form)

Georgia Lee Arts, “Field Definition: Occupational Psychosis,” in Occupational Psychosis: The Hidden Crisis Beneath Occupational Wellness, Vol. I (Occupational Wellness Institute, 2026).

APA (Short Form)

Arts, G. L. (2026). Field definition: Occupational psychosis. In Occupational psychosis: The hidden crisis beneath occupational wellness (Vol. I). Occupational Wellness Institute.

Website Citation

Chicago (Web)

Georgia Lee Arts, “Formal Field Definition: Occupational Wellness & Occupational Psychosis,” Occupational Wellness Institute, 2026.

APA (Web)

Arts, G. L. (2026). Formal field definition: Occupational wellness & occupational psychosis. Occupational Wellness Institute.

CONDITIONS OF CITATION

The work must be referenced accurately and in context.

The citation must reflect the work as conceptual and analytical.

The work must not be represented as operational guidance.

No implication of affiliation, endorsement, or authorization is made.

PROHIBITED USES

Reproduction of frameworks as applied models
Development of derivative training or certification programs
Adaptation into coaching, consulting, or therapeutic methodologies
Repackaging of concepts as proprietary systems

ATTRIBUTION REQUIREMENTS

All references must clearly attribute authorship to:

Georgia Lee Arts

Occupational Wellness Institute™

